

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE
POLICE, FIRE & CRIME COMMISSIONER
Danielle Stone

Safe and Sound in Northamptonshire

Making Northamptonshire safe and sound is my top priority

As your Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner, I am determined to make sure your voices are heard. I know you want police and fire services that listen to your concerns and tackle the community safety issues that matter most to you.

I will work with the Chief Constable and Chief Fire Officer to ensure that your police and fire services are visible and engaged in your community, taking action to prevent and investigate crime and protect vulnerable people.

We will build stronger partnerships so that all the public agencies are working together to tackle neighbourhood problems. That's how we can make sure our work has the biggest impact for the communities we serve.

I will continue to invest in practical crime prevention to deter neighbourhood crime, retail crime and make rural communities safer.

I will continue to invest in projects that support families and young people. And I will invest in providing the right support for victims and witnesses of crime.

The budget for 2025/26 will support the delivery of these priorities and maintain police officer, PCSO and firefighter numbers.

Investing in prevention

I deliver services that focus on prevention and early intervention directly to the residents of Northamptonshire. Through my Office, I commission or provide a wide range of services that provide support for young people and families, for victims and witnesses and that make our communities safer.

- ✔ Domestic abuse and family conflict specialists helped 2,651 families last year
- ✔ More than 500 young people at risk of repeatedly going missing from home, were supported by specialist youth workers
- ✔ Youth workers support young people to reduce the risk of harm and exploitation through individual and group work. They helped more than 1,500 young people
- ✔ Crime prevention team made more than 9,000 homes safer with specialist products or advice

- ✔ Voice for victims and witnesses ensures victims and witnesses of crime receive the best support. Last year, Voice contacted more than 33,000 people who had been victims of crime, to offer advice and support, helping 3,768 people
- ✔ The Witness Care Team supported victims and witnesses involved in an average of 1,516 cases going through the court system each month
- ✔ Justice in the Community team has worked with more than 100 people who have committed low level offences, making them carry out 650 hours of unpaid work to repair the harm they have caused
- ✔ Working with retailers across the county through the Retail Crime Round Table, finding ways to prevent offences and tackle criminals
- ✔ Dealt with 1,137 complaints from the public about the policing service they received, quickly putting things right for the complainant in 72% of cases
